

Immersion 2014: Mainstreaming Access to Multilingual Communities

The University of Utah's Second Language Teaching and Research Center and the Utah State Office of Education are excited to host the Fifth International Conference on Dual Language/Immersion Education, to be held at the Grand America Hotel in Salt Lake City, Utah, October 15–18, 2014. The conference will bring together researchers, practitioners, administrators and policy makers interested in immersion education. In addition to plenaries, symposia and paper sessions, attendees will be able to visit Utah dual language immersion schools and participate in professional workshops.

Wednesday, October 15, 2014 - Dual Language Immersion School Visits

Thursday, October 16, 2014 - Pre-Conference Workshops

Friday, October 17, 2014 - Full Day Conference

Saturday, October 18, 2014 - Full Day Conference

Strands:

- Research in its Applications
- Target Language Assessment
- University Teacher Preparation
- Teaching & Learning
- Cross-Cultural Competence
- Advocacy & Policy

Plenary Speakers Include:

Friday Morning Plenary: Roy Lyster

Friday Lunch Plenary Panel: Myriam Met, Siv Björklund, Cristina Banfi, and TBA

Saturday Morning Plenary: Peeter Mehisto

Saturday Lunch Plenary Panel: Kathryn Lindholm-Leary, Tara Fortune, Rosa Molina, and Fred Genesee

